UP NEXT @ NYU SKIRBALL

Ultima Vez: Infamous Offspring

November 13–15

Wim Vandekeybus and Ultima Vez bring classical myth to life in Infamous Offspring, a visceral mix of dance, theater, and cinema. With raw physicality and a pounding score, performers embody the chaos, beauty, and brutality of ancient tales in its U.S. premiere.

Jack Ferver: My Town

November 21–22

Commissioned by NYU Skirball, My Town is Ferver's darkly funny reimagining of Our Town, blending humor, vulnerability, and reflections on memory.

Mario Banushi: Mami

January 7–10

A breakout hit from Athens to Avignon, Mami now debuts in the U.S. Blending dance, surreal imagery, and ancestral memory, it's a sensual meditation on motherhood and myth.

Narcissister: Voyage Into Infinity

January 16–18

Narcissister turns NYU Skirball's stage into a surreal engine of spectacle, humor, and critique, all orbiting around her iconic mask.

THE UNEXPECTED IS THE POINT.

NYU Skirball is where bold performances meet daring ideas and world-class artistry. From groundbreaking theater and boundary-pushing dance to visionary music and urgent conversations, our stage is New York City's hub for adventurous audiences ready to encounter the unexpected, the provocative, and the unforgettable. Every season is a journey into art that surprises and resonates long after the curtain falls.

HELP KEEP US UNRULY.

We're not powered by ticket sales. We're powered by troublemakers. Members keep the lights on, the borders open, and the stage wild. Without you, it's just an empty room.

Here's some of what you get:

- Cheaper tickets so you can see more.
- Early access to see our fabulous shows before the masses catch on.
- Insider invites to the kind of artist encounters you can brag about for weeks.
